Words of Wisdom

Via Livingston Church of Christ

- A man is only as good as what he loves.
- All the beautiful sentiments in the world weigh less than a single lovely action.
- One of the nice things about problems is that a good many of them do not exist except in our imaginations.
- To err is human; to blame it on someone else is really human.
- Too many people are praying for mountains of difficulty to be removed, the real need is prayer for courage to climb them.
- He has the right to criticize, who has the heart to help.
- If you want to get even with someone, start with someone who has helped you.
- Remember not only to say the right thing at the right time and place, but far more difficult still, to leave unsaid the wrong thing at the tempting moment.
- We have no one to blame but ourselves when our enthusiasm and zeal are gone, if we have failed to feed them.
- When you speak, remember that God is one of your hearers.
- If someone lies for you, how do you know that they won't lie to you?
- Leaving in a huff is some folks' favorite form of transportation.

The Seven Pillars of Wisdom

by Edd Sterchi

Proverbs 9:1 states, "Wisdom has built her house, She has hewn out her seven pillars." What are these "seven pillars" of wisdom? Likely the reference is symbolical representing the fact that if we use godly wisdom properly, our lives will be complete.

But it is interesting to note that James, in his epistle, chapter 3 and verse 17, in defining godly wisdom lists seven aspects: "But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy."

What does your house of wisdom look like? How are the pillars holding up?

Proverbs 1:1-7, "The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel: To know wisdom and instruction, to discern the sayings of understanding, to receive instruction in wise behavior, righteousness, justice and equity; to give prudence to the naive, to the youth knowledge and discretion, a wise man will hear and increase in learning, and a man of understanding will acquire wise counsel, to understand a proverb and a figure, the words of the wise and their riddles. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction."
