Trusting God

John K. Wills

Many have memorized the 23rd Psalm, but have you ever noticed the prayer of David in the 25th Psalm?

"To You, O Lord, I lift up my soul. O my God, I trust in You, Let me not be ashamed; Let not my enemies triumph over me. Indeed, let no one who waits on You be ashamed; Let those be ashamed who deal treacherously without cause. Show me Your ways, O lord; teach me Your paths. Lead me in Your truth and teach me, For You are the God of my salvation; On You I wait all the day. Remember, O Lord, Your tender mercies and Your lovingkindness, for they are from of old. Do not remember the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions; According to Your mercy remember me" (Psalm 25:1-7).

David poured out his heart to God!

David was a man who loved and trusted the Lord!

David cried out for God to be merciful in how He dealt with him!

David provides us an example of a powerful king who realized how much He needed God's mercy. He recognized that he was not able on his own.

Here, we have a man that understood his inability to wipe his own sins away and cried out for the lovingkindness and mercy of God. May we always pour out our hearts to God, loving and trusting in Him, as we cry out for the mercy of the Lord.
