Faith Check
 by Edd Sterchi

In Micah's day, there were questions of how best to demonstrate one's faith in God. Was it simply just going through the motions of required sacrifices and offerings? No. Their faith was to be more than an outward ritual – it was to be proper outward actions based upon the proper inward attitude. The prophet summed it up with these words: "He has shown you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?" (Micah 6:8).

Check Your Justice. The first check point was "to do justly." Being just is being right with God and people. It's living right, living morally, and serving others in our daily walk. It is always conducting oneself in true godliness and that includes being more interested in other people than ones self. The internal attitude that creates this is a passion to please God.

Check Your Mercy & Respect for Others. The second check point was "to love mercy." Properly respecting others is treating them as God treats us – with kindness, love, and forgiveness. It is selflessly giving to others what is needed in their lives. The internal attitude that brings this forth is a joy of the mercy and salvation that God has given us.

Check Your Relationship With God. The final check point was "to walk humbly with your God." Walking with God implies harmony and fellowship. This is attained through reading and studying Scriptures, regular and fervent prayer, and heartfelt worship. The internal attitude that strengthens this is a desire to grow closer to God.

From applying these three Scriptural pieces in our lives, we get close to God, so we can get close to other people. So, Christian, check your life. Is it one that honors and involves God and people in ways that God points us toward?

Virtue of the Poor
By Ron Thomas

Jesus said to him, "If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me" (Matthew 19:21, ESV).

Some will interpret the Lord's words as being the virtue of all virtues—selling what one has in order to help the poor—but this would be a mistake in interpretation.

The Lord's point is not selling and then giving, but getting rid of the hurdle that has now become a hindrance to one's standing before the Lord.

What hurdle is it that you feel like you have to jump in order to be pleasing to the Lord?

With the Lord's answer to the young man, the rich man turned away disappointed. Will you consider the hurdle the Lord wants you to remove, or will you tum away disappointed?
