What Great Works Will He Do Through You?

by Doug Kashorek

"Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father" (John 14:12).

Wait! Greater works than what Jesus did while He was on this earth? There's no doubt that the King of kings was the Servant of servants. He lived servitude: washing feet, touching a leper, raising the dead, multiplying food, curing the sick, teaching the lost, loving the unloved.

Then He endured all He did before hanging on a cross for all of us. He is the peak of what a servant should be about. And yet, He tells us that if we believe in Him not only would we be doing the works that He did but we would do greater works than these.

How? Again, we limit our perspective. We have to open it up by submitting, trusting, and obeying to let God do incredible things through us. Just because we may have done some, "less than desirable" things in our past, God can still use us for growth in His kingdom.

After all, His thoughts are not our thoughts, and His ways are not our ways. Let God clean you up through repentance, asking for forgiveness, and obeying the gospel through baptism. Cry out to Him to transform the desires of your heart and He will start that process of purification. God provides eternal life, but He also wants to use you.

Just think about Aaron, how pitiful of shape he was in after leading an entire group of people astray. God forgave Him and used Aaron in spite of his past sin! There's nothing He won't do for and through you.

What great works will He do through you if you're willing to humbly approach Him and ask the Lord to use you in His service?
