Melbourne Church of Christ

"A family of believers seeking to grow spiritually while sharing Jesus and serving others."

Encouraging Factors
By Unkown

The apostle Paul chooses to encourage others after he was left for dead, "Paul got up and went back into the city. The next day he and Barnabas left for Derbe. They preached the gospel in that city and won a large number of disciples. Then they returned to Lystra, Iconium and Antioch, strengthening the disciples and encouraging them to remain true to the faith. "We must go through many hardships to enter the kingdom of God," they said (Acts 14:20-22).

Paul could have thrown in the towel, rather, he got back up and strengthened and encouraged others. Paul first received his strength and encouragement from the Lord, and he chose to keep passing it on.

Paul faced difficulties responsibly, using his pain as a stepping stone into Christian community. Fellow believers encourage one another to "grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ" (2 Peter 3:18).

The Thessalonian Christians faced struggles and an uncertain future. They were encouraged to remember their faith, love, and hope in Christ, all of which prepared them to be ready for the Lord's return.

Encouragement is a gift in the home, the workplace, the church, or wherever we find ourselves. We can come alongside others and listen, comfort, console, or affirm, among many other things.

Have you considered taking time to reflect on you could encourage? Or ask yourself, "When was the last time I encouraged someone?" It's not difficult, and the people you encourage make the church stronger and an opportunity is created to pass it on to another.
