The Wicked Never Learn

by Kerry Duke

Anyone who is willing can learn the Truth can be saved. Jesus said, "If anyone is willing to do His will, he will know of the teaching" (John 7:17). John wrote, "Whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely" (Rev. 22:17). Anyone with an honest heart will accept and obey the Truth and learn from past mistakes.

Like the prodigal son, we learn from experience (Luke 15:11-32) Solomon said, "...rebuke a wise man, and he will love you. Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning" (Prov. 9:8-9).

The attitude of the wicked is much different. They fail to learn from experience because they are too stubborn to change their ways. The Israelites saw Korah and his company destroyed for their rebellion, but the next day they rebelled themselves (Num. 16). Psalm 78 is a tragic record of a nation that refused to learn from the past.

The wicked refuse to listen to words of correction. Solomon spoke often about such an attitude, "He who corrects a scoffer gets dishonor for himself, and he who reproves a wicked man gets insults for himself." (Prov. 9:7). Some are so foolish, severe correction will not reach them, "Though you pound a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with crushed grain, yet his foolishness will not depart from him" (Prov. 27:22).

A wicked person can change their ways, and die to his or her desires, but only if they change their attitude. We must completely die, before we can truly live. As long as one has a rebellious heart, they will not turn to God, even in spite of Words and experiences that have the ability to transform.
