Lord, Lord

Travis L. Quertermous

On October 16, 2007, one of the last two survivors of the Titanic, passed away. Barbara West Dainton died at a nursing home in Camborne, England, at age 96. She was only one year old when the Titanic sank on April 15, 1912, after striking an iceberg, and killing about 1500 people.

There were so many tragedies surrounding the sinking of the Titanic. Paramount among them was the belief it was an unsinkable ship. This belief was so firmly held that many of the passengers refused to board the lifeboats even as the ship was slowly going under. They were sincere, but they were sincerely wrong, and many lost their lives as a result.

Unfortunately, too many people today believe that as long as one is sincere in their religious beliefs that God is pleased with them. Granted, one must be sincere, but God is never pleased with someone who is sincerely deceived.

Jesus emphasized this when He said, "Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. Many will say to Me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name? And then I will declare to them, I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness." (Matt. 7:21-23).

Are you trusting in sincerity alone to get you to heaven? Or have you discovered God's will from reading His word? Have you and are you putting the will of the Father into daily application?

Power in Prayer Project

Father, give me an open mind and heart to continually seek Your will and apply it in my life daily. May your living word transform my heart to cut through all racial divides and social barriers. Teach me to extend love, grace, acceptance and genuine friendship to all people, from all walks of life. Lord, take away my pride and teach me humility, as I study Your word, fall in love with Your ways and obey You without resistance. I am Yours.
