A Small Glimpse of Heaven

by Ryan Lloyd

1 Corinthians 2:9, "No eye has seen, no ear has heard, and no mind has imagined what God has prepared for those who love him."

Many people picture heaven as a monotonous place where the main event is sitting around worshipping God. That's true to a degree, we will worship in heaven but it will be an amazing experience. Heaven is going to be much more than we can imagine. Here is a small glimpse of what we have to look forward to:

A Marriage Ceremony and Supper (Rev. 19:7-9). The first thing we will do in heaven is marry Christ, who has long awaited His bride, the church, and celebrate with a meal at God's table.

Everlasting Joy (Rev. 21:4-5). Fear, sadness and anger will not exist in a place where there are no tears, no death and no pain. Everlasting joy is only found in the fullness of the presence of God.

Complete Healing (Rev. 22:3-5). We will be free from all curses and be blessed to serve in the very presence of God and the Lamb, without wounds from our past haunting us.

True Rest (Rev. 14:13). We will finally experience what it is to live stress free, worry free, sin free, and disappointment free as we rest in the arms of God.

Heaven isn't going to be boring or monotonous. It's going to be unlike anything you've ever imagined. And this is why the Bible tells us its not only something to be excited about, but the more we think about and anticipate heaven, the more our faith will grow.

Power in Prayer Project

Lord, it is my aim in life to seek you by active godly faith. I pray that the desires of my heart will fall more in love with You and Your ways, more every day, for the rest of my life. Father, may I never live and act in ways that would make You be ashamed to be my God. I give all of myself to you, in heart and active service.
