Melbourne Church of Christ

"A family of believers seeking to grow spiritually while sharing Jesus and serving others."

Who Are You Worshipping?

by Norman Easter

Henry Ward Beecher, a famous pulpit preacher, once had to be absent and his brother was invited to speak for him. The church house was crowded, but when it became evident that the eloquent Henry Beecher was not going to appear, many started to leave. Beecher's brother was not disturbed. He stood up before the murmuring crowd, called for silence and said, "All who came this morning to worship Henry W. Beecher may now leave. The rest will remain and worship God."

What are we doing when we gather together in the Christian assembly? Some, come only to hear the preacher. Is it relevant? Is it positive? Some only come to judge the sermon content of the preacher. Some attend to judge the singing, the prayers, or the friendliness of the congregation.

It is people in this mindset that go away with a host of criticisms and miss the entire heart of worship God has designed the church for. Why do we gather for worship? Some are here to get it over with for a week; to get their tickets validated once more. But those who are here because they need strength in carrying their crosses know the value of worship.

Those who gather for the intentional purpose of glorifying God in every aspect of the worship service will leave filled to the brim with the peace and presence of God. They will leave each worship service radiating the aroma of Christ.

Corporate worship has nothing to do with the song leader, those who pray or the talent of the preacher. It has to do with you and your God.

We fail to appreciate many things until they're gone. Ethan, the author of Psalm 89, possibly a Levite, writing after the nation of Judah had been desolated and the temple destroyed, remembers. "Happy are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, Lord" (Psalm 89:15). Many today hear the call to worship, but would rather follow their own desires, enjoy recreation, sleep late and rest, use the time for self. They do not appreciate the joy which this call contains. For the call to worship is the call to the presence of God. One day, they will wish they could hear that call again.
