"A family of believers seeking to grow spiritually while sharing Jesus and serving others."

Come and See
by Brian Lewis

"Look!" I can remember hearing that so many times when our kids were small. Sometimes they had discovered something new. Sometimes they had done something they thought was amazing. Sometimes they just needed to know I was interested and paying attention. They might have been diving into the pool for the first time or proud of a paper they brought home from school. There are other times for all of us that we have those "look" moments. We might do a double take or rewind the television" to see if we just saw what we thought we saw. It could be the incredible or even unexplainable things that bring this reaction in us.

After His crucifixion the followers of Jesus were probably devastated. Their leader, teacher and friend was gone. Even though He had tried to prepare them for this moment, they struggle to understand. When Mary and Mary went to the tomb that morning, their plan was for the normal tasks done after a death. They did not expect to find an empty tomb. Instead of the lifeless body of their savior, they found an angel who told them to "come and see." Look! They reacted with both fear and joy.

Nearly 2000 years after that resurrection morning, the tomb is still empty. His resurrection gives us hope and joy today. The angel told them to go and share the news of the empty tomb. We can share that same news to bring joy and hope to our world. He is risen; come and see!

"He is not here, for he has risen, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay" (Matthew 28:6 ESV).

The Cure for All Ills
by Edd Sterchi

You may have the best of doctors
Who can treat the best of men
But there's an ill he cannot cure
It's the ravages of sin

For sickness and diseases
Can take a mighty toll
But their dark and gloomy fingers
Cannot reach or touch the soul

But sin, with its ugly nature
Harms body, mind, and spirit
And no man can cut its cord
Thus we should always fear it

Now, there is a Great Physician
Whose prescription fits the bill
The only thing that rids all sin
Is a dose of the Lord's Gos-pill!

1 Corinthians 15:1-4, "Now I make known to you, brethren, the gospel which I preached to you, which also you received, in which also you stand, by which also you are saved, if you hold fast the word which I preached to you, unless you believed in vain. For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and that He was buried, and that He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures."
