

Jesus is Lord

September 13, 2023

Mark 1:15, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel.”

Mark 1:17, “Follow Me, and I will make you become fishers of men.”

Mark 1:22, “They were amazed at His (Jesus’) teaching; for He was teaching them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.”

Mark 1:34,39, “Jesus healed many who were ill with various diseases, and cast out many demons. And He (Jesus) went into their synagogues throughout all Galilee, preaching and casting out the demons.”

Mark 2:5,10, “And Jesus seeing their faith said to the paralytic, “Son, your sins are forgiven.” “So that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins.”

Mark 2:28, “The Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath.”

Romans 14:7-9, “For not one of us lives for himself, and not one dies for himself; <sup>8</sup> for if we live, we live for the Lord, or if we die, we die for the Lord; therefore whether we live or die, we are the Lord’s. <sup>9</sup> For to this end Christ died and lived again, that He might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.”

Galatians 2:20, “I have been crucified with Christ, and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.”

Acts 2:36, “Let all the house of Israel know for certain that God has made Him both Lord and Christ – this Jesus whom you crucified.”

Mark 4:35-39, *“On that day, when evening came, He said to them, “Let us go over to the other side.” <sup>36</sup> Leaving the crowd, they took Him along with them in the boat, just as He was; and other boats were with Him. <sup>37</sup> And there arose a fierce gale of wind, and the waves were breaking over the boat so much that the boat was already filling up. <sup>38</sup> Jesus Himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke Him and *said to Him, “Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?” <sup>39</sup> And He got up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, “Hush, be still.” And the wind died down and it became perfectly calm.”*

Mark 5:2-13, “When He got out of the boat, immediately a man from the tombs with an unclean spirit met Him,<sup>3</sup> and he had his dwelling among the tombs. And no one was able to bind him anymore, even with a chain;<sup>4</sup> because he had often been bound with shackles and chains, and the chains had been torn apart by him and the shackles broken in pieces, and no one was strong enough to subdue him.<sup>5</sup> Constantly, night and day, he was screaming among the tombs and in the mountains, and gashing himself with stones.<sup>6</sup> Seeing Jesus from a distance, he ran up and bowed down before Him;<sup>7</sup> and shouting with a loud voice, he said, “What business do we have with each other, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I implore You by God, do not torment me!”<sup>8</sup> For He had been saying to him, “Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!”<sup>9</sup> And He was asking him, “What is your name?” And he said to Him, “My name is Legion; for we are many.”<sup>10</sup> And he began to implore Him earnestly not to send them out of the country.<sup>11</sup> Now there was a large herd of swine feeding nearby on the mountain.<sup>12</sup> The demons implored Him, saying, “Send us into the swine so that we may enter them.”<sup>13</sup> Jesus gave them permission. And coming out, the unclean spirits entered the swine; and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea, about two thousand of them; and they were drowned in the sea.”

Mark 5:25-34, “A woman who had had a hemorrhage for twelve years,<sup>26</sup> and had endured much at the hands of many physicians, and had spent all that she had and was not helped at all, but rather had grown worse—<sup>27</sup> after hearing about Jesus, she came up in the crowd behind Him and touched His cloak.<sup>28</sup> For she thought, “If I just touch His garments, I will get well.” Immediately the flow of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction.<sup>30</sup> Immediately Jesus, perceiving in Himself that the power proceeding from Him had gone forth, turned around in the crowd and said, “Who touched My garments?”<sup>31</sup> And His disciples said to Him, “You see the crowd pressing in on You, and You say, ‘Who touched Me.’”<sup>32</sup> And He looked around to see the woman who had done this.<sup>33</sup> But the woman fearing and trembling, aware of what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth.<sup>34</sup> And He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace and be healed of your affliction.”

Mark 5:35-42, “While He was still speaking, they came from the house of the synagogue official, saying, “Your daughter has died; why trouble the Teacher anymore?”<sup>36</sup> But Jesus, overhearing what was being spoken, said to the synagogue official, “Do not be afraid any longer, only believe.”<sup>37</sup> And He allowed no one to accompany Him, except Peter and James and John the brother of James.<sup>38</sup> They came to the house of the synagogue official; and He saw a commotion, and people loudly weeping and wailing.<sup>39</sup> And entering in, He said to them, “Why make a commotion and weep? The child has not died, but is asleep.”<sup>40</sup> They began laughing at Him. But putting them all out, He took along the child’s father and mother and His own companions, and entered the room where the child was.<sup>41</sup> Taking the child by the hand, He said to her, “Talitha kum!” (which translated means, “Little girl, I say to you, get up!”).<sup>42</sup> Immediately the girl got up and began to walk, for she was twelve years old. And immediately they were completely astounded.”
