Luke 7:1-10, “When He had completed all His discourse in the hearing of the people, He went to Capernaum. ² And a centurion’s slave, who was highly regarded by him, was sick and about to die. ³ When he heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders asking Him to come and save the life of his slave. ⁴ When they came to Jesus, they earnestly implored Him, saying, “He is worthy for You to grant this to him; ⁵ for he loves our nation and it was he who built us our synagogue.” ⁶ Now Jesus started on His way with them; and when He was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends, saying to Him, “Lord, do not trouble Yourself further, for I am not worthy for You to come under my roof; ⁷ for this reason I did not even consider myself worthy to come to You, but just say the word, and my servant will be healed. ⁸ For I also am a man placed under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to this one, ‘Go!’ and he goes, and to another, ‘Come!’ and he comes, and to my slave, ‘Do this!’ and he does it.” ⁹ Now when Jesus heard this, He marveled at him, and turned and said to the crowd that was following Him, “I say to you, not even in Israel have I found such great faith.” ¹⁰ When those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the slave in good health.”

James 2:17, “Faith, if it has no works, is dead, being by itself.”

Hebrews 4:15-16, “We do not have a high priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but One who has been tempted in all things as we are, yet without sin. Therefore let us draw near with confidence to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.”

Colossians 2:9-10, “In Jesus all the fullness of Deity dwells in bodily form, and in Christ you have been made complete.”

Colossians 1:21-22, “Although you were formerly alienated and hostile in mind, engaged in evil, Jesus has now reconciled you in His fleshly body through death, in order to present you before God holy and blameless and beyond reproach.”

Matthew 28:19, “Make disciples, baptize them in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and teach them to do everything I commanded you.”
